

Newsletter (7-8-2021)

Greeting: Hello family, friends, and all interested in RnR. This website is dedicated to providing Bible-based resources for God's glory and your use. I would love to hear from you. It is fun answering questions, hearing your spiritual testimony, and learning of specific requests for Biblical resources which help prioritize my effort. Feel free to unsubscribe at end if you do not wish to receive a newsletter planned once each month.

The most exciting new free featured resource is entitled, "God Logic: Reflections of the Universe." If you only read one thing (besides the Bible), this is it for both unsaved and saved. I wish I had it years ago.

Meat: Since this is the first newsletter, it provides you with an overview of my current plan for these newsletters and what is available on RnR.

Orientation: The Greeting is more personal, designed to orient new subscribers. The Meat area is the heart of each newsletter that highlights one of the newest and best resource(s) or may provide a short devotional. The Free Resources, Free Surveys, or Sales areas are all fairly self-explanatory, where we also plan to show what is new since the last newsletter.

RnR Content: There are 4 main areas: Resources, Shop, Discussion, and About. Resources is of course the main area where some great Books/eBooks, Ministries, Presentations, and Videos are provided. It also has some insightful Surveys that can be helpful and fun. The teacher lessons and student handouts are where I spend a lot of energy developing strong Bible-based materials that we strongly encourage others to use and share with as many churches and folks as possible. Shop is primarily where some of our books are highlighted at discounted bundled rates. Discussion contains 2 places (Blog/Q&A and Contact) for questions and comments. Contact is where a person can subscribe to this newsletter. I currently only have about 16 blogs, with the most activity on American Black History progress (82 comments), many from unsaved folks. It is a good place to start conversations. The About area has the website Purpose, my brief Bio so folks do not have to ask or wonder about my background, and a statement of beliefs that are also helpful in starting discussions.

Free Resources: 6 areas are described under RnR Content. New since last newsletter: Everything is new. We have over 30 teacher and 30 student handouts that can be printed or used digitally straight from the website. I actually teach directly from my smartphone and all the students have been using their phones to follow along this year. I am most excited about a new whitepaper, entitled, "God Logic: Reflections of the Universe." Please check it out, I know it can get deep, but many unsaved folks regularly ask about reasons for being a Christian.

Free Surveys: We currently have 4 surveys that are great and take only about 1 minute all the way up to 15 to complete and get your results. New since last newsletter: All are new, as this is the first newsletter.

Sales: This includes 2 popular seminar materials, and also some of my book bundles used by pastors and teachers in many countries. Everything for sale is almost at cost, with the least expensive item: $1.99, and the most expensive: $8.20 per item. I plan to add more PowerPoint slides that can be used by pastors and teachers as effective communication tools supporting the books soon. New since last newsletter: All are new.
